What Clients Say

I'm always impressed by the kindness with which Mr. Shea treats his clients. Whether educated or not, rich or poor, he treats them all with respect and makes them feel as though their case is the most important one on his desk.

- Quote from Court Reporter

My dad was injured while in the hospital. John Shea won a judgment for him so we were pleased with the outcome. But just as important to my family was how respectfully John Shea and his staff treated our elderly father and he demanded the other side treat my father with respect and dignity as well.
